THE INSTITUTION:

Mr. Embery, Mr. Green, Mr. Spathelf, representing the Vestry, (standing before the Dean with the new Rector, say these words)

Dean Smith, we have come together today to welcome J. Robert Zimmerman, who has been chosen to serve as Rector of St. Mark's Church. We believe that he is well qualified, and that he has been prayerfully and lawfully selected.

The Letter of Institution will be read..

The Dean then says:

Robert, do you, in the presence of this congregation, commit yourself to this new trust and responsibility?

New Minister: I do

The Dean then addresses the congregation.

Will you who witness this new beginning support and uphold Robert in this ministry?

People: We will.

The Dean standing, says:

Let us then offer our prayers to God for all his people, for this congregation, and for Robert, their Priest and Rector.

THE LITANY (led by Canon John Crandall, The Cathedral Church of the Nativity, Bethlehem, Pa.)

God the Father,

Have mercy on us.

God the Son,

Have mercy on us.

God the Holy Spirit,

Have mercy on us.

Holy Trinity, one God,

Have mercy on us.

We humbly pray that you will hear us, O Lord; and that you will send peace to the whole world, which you have reconciled to yourself by the ministry of your Son, Jesus.

Lord, hear our prayer.

That you will guide all in civil authority to establish justice and maintain it for all men,

Lord, hear our prayer.

That you will heal the divisions of your visible Church, that all may be one.

Lord, hear our prayer.

That you will grant to your People the forgiveness of sins, and give us grace to amend our lives.

Lord, hear our prayer.

That you will lead every member of your Church in his particular vocation and ministry to serve you in a true and godly life,

Lord, hear our prayer

That you will raise up able ministers for your Church that the Gospel may be made known to all people,

Lord, hear our prayer.

That you will inspire all Bishops, Priests and Deacons with your love, that they may hunger for truth and thirst after righteousness.

Lord, hear our prayer.

That you will fill them with compassion, and move them to care for all your people,

Lord, hear our prayer.

That you will bless your servant Robert, now to be inducted as Rector of St. Mark's Church, and pour your grace upon him, that he may faithfully fulfill the duties of this Ministry, build up your Church, and glorify your Name.

Lord, hear our prayer.

That you will bless his family, and adorn them with all Christian virtues,

Lord, hear our prayer.

That by the indwelling of your Holy Spirit you will sustain those who have been called to the ministry of your Church, and encourage them to persevere to the end,

Lord, hear our prayer.

That we, with your blessed servant, St. Mark, and all your saints who have served you in the past, may be gathered into your unending kingdom,

Lord, hear our prayer.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy,

Lord, have mercy.

The Dean stands and says:

The Lord be with you

And with Thy Spirit

Let us pray.

O Almighty God, whose blessed Son our Savior Jesus Christ ascended far above all heavens that he might fill all things: Mercifully give us faith to perceive that, according to his promise, he abideth with his Church on earth, even unto the end of the ages; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God in glory everlasting.

Amen.

To you and to your service I devote myself, body, soul, and spirit. Fill my memory with the record of your mighty works; enlighten my understanding with the light of your Holy Spirit; and may all the desires of my heart and will center in what you would have me do. Make me an instrument of your salvation for the people entrusted to my care, and grant that I may faithfully administer your holy Sacraments, and by my life and teaching set forth your true and living Word. Be always with me in carrying out the duties of my ministry. In prayer, quicken my devotion; in praises, heighten my love and gratitude; in preaching, give me readiness of thought and expression; and grant that, by the clearness and brightness of your holy Word, all the world may be drawn into your blessed kingdom. All this I ask for the sake of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ.
